SPORTING KC TO BRING STREETCAR FOOSBALL TO THE KC STREETCAR ROUTE

(Kansas City, Missouri) – This Friday, Kansas City is turning Sporting Blue.

On the eve of a highly anticipated home match against Houston Dynamo FC on Saturday, Sporting Kansas City invites supporters to celebrate Sporting Blue Friday by sharing their Sporting Kansas City photos on social media and by riding the Sporting KC Streetcar.

Supporters are invited to ride the KC Streetcar and visit the downtown route all day Friday to redeem exclusive offers from club partners. Fans can participate by scanning QR codes on eight life-sized Sporting KC foosball players located at each of the following KC Streetcar stops:

- River Market West at 4th & Delaware (Southbound)
- City Market at 5th & Walnut (Northbound)
- Library at 9th & Main (Northbound)
- Metro at 12th & Main (Southbound)
- Power & Light at 14th & Main (Southbound)
- Kauffman Center at 16th & Main (Northbound)
- Crossroads at 19th & Main (Northbound)
- Union Station at Main & Pershing (Northbound)

Additionally, all fans who post social media photos wearing Sporting KC gear or colors using the hashtag

#SportingBlueFriday will be entered for the chance to win tickets to a future Sporting KC home match at Children's Mercy Park.

This latest collaboration is a continuation of the partnership between the KC Streetcar and Sporting KC. A month ago, this partnership revealed the Sporting KC Streetcar to kick-off the 2021 MLS season.

Track the exact location of the Sporting KC Streetcar, otherwise known as Streetcar 801, using the online KC Streetcar tracker on our website: www.kcstreetcar.org/route/streetcar-tracker/.
